Banks and building societies may not accept Direct Debit Instructions for some types of account

*Providing your email address means you are happy to receive information in this way. We would also like to keep you informed about our projects and fundraising activities by post. If you wish to change how we contact you, please let us know by calling 0131 347 9801.

We will not pass on your details to third parties for marketing purposes.

This guarantee should be detached and retained by the payer.

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit, The Scottish Bible Society will notify you ten working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request The Scottish Bible Society to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by The Scottish Bible Society or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society. – If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when The Scottish Bible Society asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
