BIBLE SOCIETY

'May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.'

Romans 15:13 (NIVUK)

Thank you for your continued and faithful support as you pray each day for the work of Bible Societies around the world. We greatly appreciate your partnership in our work and in praying for our vision to see lives transformed through the Bible – both here in Scotland and throughout the world.

As I write this introduction, world news is dominated by a sense of hopelessness and fear, with many people struggling to find hope in the darkness they face. The COVID pandemic continues to bring uncertainty and challenge; with some countries unable to fulfil vaccination needs as speedily as others. Current political and economic instability across the world also adds to a feeling of darkness and, for some, despair.

It is into this context that the church speaks hope. Jesus Christ is our only hope and he alone brings the comfort for which our hearts and souls long. As people receive the Bible and come to it with open minds and hearts, they will encounter Jesus. This is why we do what we do. Thank you for being partners with us in this great task.

May you know this overflowing hope in your own life as you lean hard on the God of hope. Peace and joy are great gifts from a loving heavenly Father and we each need them, whatever our personal circumstances may be.

The unfolding of your word gives light (Psalm 119:130) – let us rejoice together in this light. The darkness will not win! We stand together in prayer and in the fellowship of our Lord Jesus Christ.
